DON'T PUT YOUR SUCCESS ON ICE WE'LL HELP YOU RELEASE YOUR FULL POTENTIAL.

Walaiti Rathore of Fraser Brown Solicitors and Michael Kheng of Kurnia Consultants present a great opportunity for you to learn how to protect and maximise the potential of your licence.

We are holding a short interactive presentation for the licensed trade that will offer practical advice and allow you to discuss your views on the above subjects.

We will also give you an overview and update on the current licensing reforms which will affect your business.

The event is free to attend and there is the chance to network with others facing the same business challenges as you over light refreshments.

Speakers Profiles.

Walaiti Rathore

Walaiti is an experienced advocate and has represented applicants and premises licence holders, both private and corporate, at licensing sub-committee hearings across the country and has dealt with all aspects of licensing appeals to the Magistrates Court.

Walaiti specialises in all aspects of licensing and gambling applications as well as dealing with licensing prosecutions and related regulatory work for independent, multiple and national operators. He is a BIIAB tutor and is experienced in advising licensing sub committees and acting as their legal advisor at committee hearings as well as providing training to local authorities.

Walaiti is also a member of British Institute of Innkeeping (BII), the Institute of Licensing (IOL) and Society of Independent Brewers (SIBA)

Michael Kheng

Michael formed Kurnia Licensing Consultants in 2004 to help licensees prepare and then assist them through transition in respect of the Licensing Act 2003. Michael then developed the training division of the consultancy and is a Grade 1 accredited BIIAB training centre. Michael also has a small pub company base in Lincolnshire which enables him to keep up with the operational side of the industry.

Michael is also a member of the BII, British Beer and Pub Association (BBPA), Association of Licensed Multiple retailers (ALMR) and the All Party Parliamentary Beer Group.
